
CORK SCULLING LADDER
RULES

1. Challenges must be accepted.
2. Competitors must race at least once a month.
3. You cannot challenge until your previous challenge is finished.
4. You can challenge one or two positions in front of your position – or – you can challenge the person in front of you in your section.
5. All races must be umpired.
6. All races are raced under the rules of Rowing Ireland (formally IARU).
7. To join the Cork Sculling Ladder after the Time Trials, you must challenge the last or second last position.
8. All competitors are entitled to one free challenge during the season, except those who join from the 1st January.
9. You cannot take over the leadership of a section unless you challenge and defeat the person in the leadership of that section.
10. If any Rowing Boats, Sculling Boats or Launches join in on a challenge race at any stage during a race (eg., racing parallel or near to the racing sculler(s) and encouraging the sculler(s) etc.), the Umpire shall stop the race, without any previous warning and disqualify the sculler(s) (from which Club the offending boat(s) come from).
11. Notify Pat Hickey of challenges at least 48 hours before race.
12. Results must be given to Pat Hickey within 48 hours of race. Failure to do so, will make the result NULL and VOID.
